

Section #AE.
Liberation of Old Romanian Kingdom;
War With USSR on the Nistru (1918 - 1919)

A51. Remobilisation of the Romanian Army, liberation of Romania up to the Carpathian Mountains	4
A51.01. – The French Troops Pass the Danube and enters Bucharest (10/11 November 1918)
A51.02. – Remobilisation of the Romanian Army
A51.03. – The Romanian Army enters the former occupied territory; the Romanian Post resumed its service (10-24 November 1918)
A51.04. – The Royal Family returns to Bucharest (1 December 1918)
A52: The Withdrawal of the Mackensen Army (German Occupation Troops) from Romania (december 1918 – January 1919)	11
A52.01. – Historical Data
A52.02. – Postal aspects of the last days of German occupation in Romania (1-12 November 1918)
A52.03. – Mail from German military during their retreat to Germany (November – December 1918), or from internees.

Cap. XV. Recovery of Dobroudja: Political-Military Chronology

A53. The Bulgarian occupation in Dobroudja after the Armistice (29 September – 5 December 1918).	20
A53. The British Military in Romania (1918-1919).	23
A54.01. – The British Military Post in Romania and Northern Dobroudja (1918-1919)
A54.01.1 – The Garrison Battalion Seaforth Highlanders at Constanța
A54.01.2. – The British Military Postoffice SX3 in Galați / Constanța (1 – 26 March 1919)
A54.01.3. – The Mail of the British Military Mission in Bucharest (December 1918 – August 1919...)
A54.01.4. – British Troops to and in Bucharest (27 november – 3 December 1918)
A54.02. – The British Military Post in occupied Bulgaria (Southern Dobroudja, 1918-1919).
A54.02.1. – The 26th British Division in Southern Dobroudja (December 1918 – April 1919)
A55. The Italian Military Occupation in Southern Dobroudja (1919).	30
A56. The French Military Occupation in Dobroudja (1918-1919).	31
▪ A56.01. – French military units in Northern Dobroudja (December 1918 – July 1919)
▪ A56.02. – The French military occupation in Southern Dobroudja (20 June – 6 December 1918).
A57. Tge Beginnings of Romanian Administration in Dobroudja (December 1918 – December 1919).	34
▪ A57.01. – Northern Dobroudja: Romanian Administration in French Military Area (1 december 1918 – July 1919)
▪ A57.02. – Southern Dobroudja: Uncertainty until the last moment (1 December 1918 – December 1919)

Cap. XVI. War With Soviet Russia

A58. French Danube Army actions in the anti-soviet war (Bessarabia 1919)	37
A59. Greek Military forces on Romanian soil (Romania, Bessarabia 1919)	40
A60. Polish Military on Romanian soil (4th Polish Division in Bessarabia)	48
A61. Other military units on the anti-soviet front	49

Section #AF
The Taking Over and Unification of Bucovina; The Military Occupation in Pokutia

Cap. XVII. The Taking Over of the Administration in Bucovina

A62. Historical	51
A63. The Romanian Military Action	53
A64. Posta History of Romanian administration in Bucovina	54

Cap. XVIII. The Military Occupation of Pokutia

A65. The Romanian Military action in Pokutia	58
A66. Postal history of the Romanian occupation in Pokutia, censorship	66

Section #AG
The Taking Over and Unification of Transylvania and Banat;
The Military Occupation in Hungary and Ruthenia

Cap. XIX. The Postal History of Banat (November 1918 – August 1919)

A67. Historical chronology; The French occupation in Banat	77
A68. Postal History of Serbian occupation in Banat (December 1918 – 22 July 1919): Fieldpost, Censorship.	93
A69. The Inter-Regnum postal period (23 July – 19 August 1919)	110
A70. The Frontier rectification in 1924: Jimbolia, Modos, Pardani.	113

Cap. XX. The Postal History of Arad (December 1918 – July 1919)

	117
A71. Historical chronology; The French occupation in Arad
A72. Postal history of the French presence in Arad (stamps, censorship)	129

Cap. XXI. Transylvania and Hungary: a Political-Military Chronology

A73: Vienna and Prague under Romanian military command (28 October 1918 ...)	140
A74. The military chronology of the occupation in Transylvania and Hungary	143
▪ A74.01. – The Inter-Regnum period. The National Guards (November – December 1918)
▪ A74.02. – The occupation of territory up to the Apuseni Mountains (November 1918 – 22 January 1919)
▪ A74.03. – The occupation of territory in Partium and Hungary up to Tisza River (April 1919)
▪ A74.04.- The Romanian Army along Tisza River (1 May – 20 July 1919).
▪ A74.05. – The occupation of territory west of Tisza, including capital Budapest (20 July – 4 August 1919)
▪ A74.06. – The Romanian Military occupation west of Danube (August – October 1919)
▪ A74.07. – The occupation between Danube and Tisza (4 August – 19 November 1919)
▪ A74.08. – Withdrawal from Hungary up to the present-day frontier.
A75. The Postal History of the Hungarian Army (Republican, then Soviet), 22 January – 3 August 1919.	166
A76. The Postal History of the Romanian Occupation in Hungary up to Tisza River (civilian mail, including that intermediated by the Red Cross)	181

Cap. XXII. The Military Occupation in Subcarpathian Ukraine / Ruthenia

A77. The Romanian Military action in Subcarpathian Ukraine; periodisation	200
A78. The postal history of Romanian occupation in Subcarpathian Ukraine	210

Cap. XXIII. The Romanian Military Post in Transylvania and Occupied Hungary

A79. The Military Post after remobilisation (December 1918)	216
A80. Historical, OOB and deployment of the Romanian military units in Transylvania, Banat and Hungary (November 1918 – 31 March 1921).	220
▪ A80.01-A80.19: Comandamentul Trupelor din Transilvania; Detașamentul Olteanu; Grupul de Nord Transilvania; Grupul de Sud Transilvania; Grupul de Manevră Moșoiu; Comandamentul Zonei de Supraveghere; Zona Banat; Divizia 1 Infanterie; Divizia 2 Infanterie; Divizia 6 Infanterie; Divizia 7 Infanterie; Divizia 16 Infanterie; Divizia 17 Infanterie; Divizia 18 Infanterie; Divizia 19 Infanterie; Divizia 20 Infanterie; Divizia 21 Infanterie; Divizia 1 Vânători; Divizia 2 Vânători; Divizia 1 Cavalerie; Divizia 2 Cavalerie; Oficiul P.T.T. Budapesta

Cap. XXIV. The Transition Period of the Romanian Post in the New Territories

A81. The Historical of the Romanian Post establishment in Transylvania and Banat (organisation, stages and areas, postal fees)	309
A82. Hungarian postal items provisionally used by the Romanian Post in Transylvania and Banat (stamps, stationeries, cancellations, etc)	327
A83. Exceptional Situation during the transition period in Transilvania și Banat	346
• A83.01. – Lack of Postage stamps
• A83.02. – Lack of postal cancellations
• A83.03. – Lack of other postal items (Registration labels..)
A84. The introduction of the Romanian postal items in Transilvania și Banat (Cluj/Oradea stamps, Definitive stamps, Service stamps, Stationeries, Cancellations, etc).	359
A85. Mixed frankings: Hungarian + Romanian + Local issues.	376

Section #AH Supporting Greater Romania (1919 - 1928)

Cap. XXV. The French Military Post in Orient: Romania, Banat, Arad, Bessarabia

A86. The French Postal Sectors, related to Romanian postal history	383
▪ S.P. 501, 501A, 501B, 502, 502A, 503, 505, 513, 513A, 514, 515, 515A, 516, 516A, 519, 520, 520A, 520E, 521, 522, 524, 525, 526, 526A, 526B, 549, 551, Entrepots 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, Vaguemestre 14, 29.	383
A87. Commercial Mail send throught the French Echonomical Office in Bucharest	399
A88. The Airmail Postal Service Constantinopol – Bucharest (8 May – 31 October 1919): Historical, Cancellations, censorship, franking.	402
A89. OOB and historical of the French military units in Romania, Bessarabia, Banat and Arad	416
▪ A89.01-89.11: Danube Army; Orient French Army / Hungary Army; 1., 2. and 3. Infantry Divisions Group; Cavalry Brigade; 11., 16 and 17. Colonial Infantry Division; 30. and 156. Infantry Division
A90. Detailed historical and deployment of French military subunits in Romania, Besarabia, Banat and Arad	430
▪ A90.01-90.21: Divisionary Infantry; Divisionar Artillerie; Infantry (Colonial) Regiments; March Colonial Regiment; African and Algerian Tirailleurs Regiments; Morocco Spahis Regiment; Artillerie (Colonial) Regiment; Heavy Artillerie

Regiment; Mountain Artillerie Regiment; Armoured Units; Sanitary Service;
Aviation; Navy, etc

A91. Places in Banat where French units were located 459

Cap. XXVI. RUMÄNENZUGE – The Swiss Commercial Trains (1919-1921)

A92: Commercial Trains with military escort (May 1919 – September 1920) 466

A93: Commercial Trains without military escort (October 1920 – December 1921) 487

Cap. XXVII. The U.S. American Red Cross in Romania

A94: Postal History of U.S. presence in Romania (February 1919–September 1920) 492